THE ROARING FORK YOUTH ART EXPO:

STILL LIVES AND WORKS FROM HOME

Aspen Art Museum

The Roaring Fork Youth Art Expo: Still Lives and Works from Home brings over 400 artworks made by young local artists grades K–12 from Aspen to Rifle into the AAM galleries.

Organized by Los Angeles–based artist Adam Stamp, the exhibition centers around artwork created at home and inspired by three thematic prompts: somewhere or someone you miss, your favorite object or room in your home, and a meal you enjoy eating. These themes were meant to encourage young people to be ok with themselves and the world that they’re living in and to make something creative from the experiences they’ve been having at home.

By repurposing and repainting the surreal architectural cabin and mountainous landscape structures designed by artist Veit Laurent Kurz as a backdrop for a salon-style exhibition, Stamp presents a colorful and playful environment in which kids and families can be themselves.

Adam Stamp is an Aries Sun, Pisces Moon, and Capricorn Rising. He lives and works in and out of Los Angeles.

The AAM's exhibitions and programming are FREE and accessible thanks to our members! Become a member today!

AAM education programs are made possible by the Questrom Education Fund.

AAM exhibitions are made possible by the Marx Exhibition Fund. General exhibition support is provided by the Toby Devan Lewis Visiting Artist Fund. Further support is provided by the AAM National Council.

Additional support is provided by Larry Marx and Bruce Etkin.

“I want the Youth Art Expo to be an encouraging and uplifting event for the participants and the community. My hope is that early exposure to contemporary art leads to lifelong engagement with the arts—as artists, arts professionals, collectors, and museum members. It would be so great if some of these young makers choose to become artists, and I just love the idea that they can put a museum show on their CV before they even apply for college! For those that are able to visit the show and see their work at the museum, I hope they will recognize the value of the arts and see that they have a special place in it, now and into the future.”

—Adam Stamp

I'M IN A

Special thanks to:

Veit Laurent Kurz for his amazing structure and vision, which formed the foundation for our exhibition.

All the teachers and parents across the valley who encouraged young people to participate. Morgan Waltz for “I’m in a Museum Show” inspiration. Marta Fontolan and Scott Cameron Weaver for the emotional support.

The entire AAM staff and crew which have become a family to me. Teresa Booth Brown, Annie Henninger, Ryan Prince, and the entire education department for all of their hard work and input.

MUSEUM

SHOW!

Most special thanks to Elisabeth Strunk for her tireless efforts putting this together, her passion is incomparable.

Thank you Nicola for trusting me with this special project.

Thanks to my mother Sally Starbuck Stamp for all the things done to encourage and allow me to be an artist.

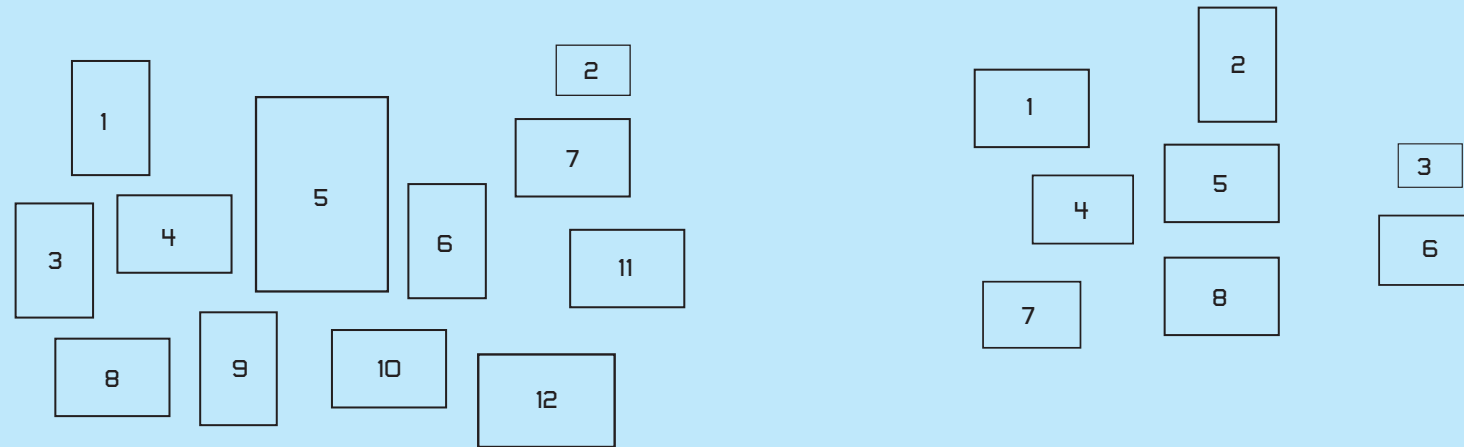

Most of all, thanks to all the young artists for sharing their amazing work and statements.

And Lutz and Bonnie. —Adam Stamp

ABOUT THE ASPEN ART MUSEUM

Accredited by the American Alliance of Museums in 1979, the Aspen Art Museum is a thriving and globally engaged non-collecting contemporary art museum. Following the 2014 opening of the museum’s facility designed by Pritzker Prize–winning architect Shigeru Ban, the AAM enjoys increased attendance, renewed civic interaction, and international media attention. In July 2017, the AAM was one of ten institutions to receive the United States’ National Medal for Museum and Library Services for its educational outreach to rural communities in Colorado’s Roaring Fork Valley and its fostering of learning partnerships with civic and cultural partners within a 100-mile radius of the museum’s Aspen location.
